daffodils

NEAR BRIDGETON, N. J., are the Seabrook Bulb Gardens. Here in the spring you may see in delightful bloom acres upon acres of the finest flowers grown from bulbs. Here Daffodils, propagated by the Seabrook bulb specialists, expertly trained in Dutch Bulb Culture are developed to their greatest strength and beauty. Only the very finest varieties are grown—all are selected for vigorous growing in American Gardens.

You too, may have in your garden the same flowers which have made Seabrook Bulb Gardens famous. In this folder are listed the varieties of Seabrook Daffodil bulbs which are available to you.
